TRAVEL-AND LEARN, FAMILY-STYLE

"Give me five!" So said Kubicek—Jakub Musil, three-year-old son of Dr. Lucie Musilova, daughter of Dr. Jana Krajickova, all participants in the March 2004 2-week "High-school Reunion" Travel-and-Learn Program in Florida.

Dr. Bozena Somogyiova and Dr. Jirina Bartova, two of Jarda Tusek's Prague high-school classmates (Jana being the third), came with Jakub, Lucie, Jana's son Ondrej and his cousin Petr to relax and enjoy life in sunny Florida. The group of seven, spanning three generations, stayed at St. Augustine Beach in SeaWinds, an oceanside condominium, then traveled to Kennedy Space Center, DisneyWorld, Jekyll Island, Alexander Springs, and other tourist sites before returning to Prague, suntanned and full of memories.

New ILI Programs Planned

The Institute is working with Dr. Bozena Somogyiova to organize two different programs for the fall of 2004. One program is for HRD managers from the Czech Republic through Bozena's Prague-based firm Inventa. The other program is for a group of adults who've studied English together for 8 years and want to improve their conversational English skills.

The Vrsovice Class of 1958 Comes to Florida

The March 2004 group of high-school classmates and their families is the second of two "Prague High-school Reunion" Travel-and-Learn programs in Florida.

In November 2003 the first group of Prague high-school classmates came for a 2-week program.

Jarda Tusek, program organizer, welcomed Mirek Vavrda, Jana Mala, Eva Fabianova, Zdenka Jahodova and her husband Bedrich to relax and enjoy life in sunny Florida.

The group stayed at St. Augustine Beach in an oceanside condominium, then traveled to Kennedy Space Center, Disney-World, the beaches of Sarasota, Warm Mineral Springs near Venice, and Alexander Springs, returning to Prague to be home for Christmas.

Friendships, sightseeing, swimming, hiking, singing and a Sunday visit to Christ the Redeemer Church, Ponte Vedra Beach, were the hallmarks of both of these reunions. Jarda and I tremendously enjoyed hosting these two special Travel-and-Learn programs.

Friendships, sightseeing, swimming, hiking, and a Sunday visit to Christ the Redeemer Church, Ponte Vedra Beach, were the hallmarks of this program, the second in a series. The Institute is grateful for the new relationships we were privileged to form with three generations of Czech friends.
